

NEW DOCTORS BEGIN TO ROSTER PATIENTS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 7, 2014

PETROLIA, ON Dr. John Butler M.D., Lead Physician of the Central Lambton Family Health Team (CLFHT), announced today that two new Family Physicians are now rostering patients, bringing the total number of CLFHT physicians to nine. Dr. Justin Mall M.D. and Dr. Nathan Taylor M.D., who signed on with the team in January, 2013, while medical residents, will begin to roster patients immediately.

Dr. Mall, a native of St. Thomas, Ontario will complete his Family Medicine residency at the Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry, Western University, London, this month. He has worked alongside Dr. Butler, Dr. Enoch Daniel, Dr. Angela Wang and Dr. Firas Al-Dhaher of the CLFHT. In response to the announcement, Dr. Mall said, "I feel very welcome and I'm excited to be a part of the Central Lambton Family Health Team. I am looking forward to both serving and being part of the Lambton community."

Dr. Nathan Taylor, who was born and raised in Nova Scotia, completed his Family Medicine Residency in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, where he lived for the past two years. Dr. Taylor and his young family purchased a home in Petrolia earlier this summer and have taken up residence in the town. Dr. Taylor said, "I am looking forward to raising my family and practicing family medicine in Petrolia."

Dr. Butler said, "We are looking forward to working with both Dr. Mall and Dr. Taylor. They are excellent physicians who will undoubtedly provide compassionate and highly competent patient care for years to come. We also look forward to working with them at the CEE Hospital site of Bluewater Health. Welcome to the team!"

Sarah Milner, Executive Director of the CLFHT echoed Dr. Butler's comments, "The Central Lambton Family Health Team is thrilled to welcome Dr. Mall and Dr. Taylor. They will work in partnership with allied health members to provide quality care to patients for many years to come. I have no doubt they will complement the team in a very positive nature."

The team's Board Chair, Mary-Pat Gleeson added, "Dr. Mall and Dr. Taylor are fantastic additions to the team. Our community is grateful to our doctors and to our recruitment committee for their determined efforts to make certain we will continue to have exemplary health care."

Dr. Mall and Dr. Taylor will have offices in the new Englehart Health Park facilities at 4130 Glenview Road, Petrolia. Patients wishing to sign on with Dr. Mall and Dr. Taylor can contact 519-882-2500 for further information.
